KY STIERWALT CONTINUES FAMILY LEGACY, JOINS ANDIS® COMPANY AS LIVESTOCK GROOMING EDUCATOR

STURTEVANT, Wis. (February 2017) – Andis® Company, an industry leader in small and large animal grooming tools and education, today announced that Ky Stierwalt has become a member of its esteemed animal Grooming Education Team, specializing in livestock. Stierwalt, follows in his father’s footsteps – industry legend Kirk Stierwalt – as an educator for Andis.

Stierwalt

“Ky brings a fresh perspective to the team, as well as the expertise he’s gleaned from shadowing his father for more than 10 years,” said Megan Mouser, Animal Education Manager. “We are excited to bring Ky’s cattle grooming expertise to the team and look forward to having him help launch our latest education initiatives, including our youth outreach.”

As a second-generation Andis Educator, Stierwalt has enjoyed a successful career boasting several major wins at the National Western, American Royal and NAILE, to name a few. Though just at the beginning of his education career, Stierwalt has extensive knowledge in the cattle industry, conducts clinics and works as a judge at competitions several times a year. He works to share his experience with young cattle enthusiasts from the FFA and 4-H to assist in their own success in competition and in life.

Stierwalt graduated from Oklahoma State University in 2014 and prior to joining the Andis team, focused on raising, buying and selling calves across the United States.
